Lesson Two“Repent or Perish”(Joel)

Joel spoke at a time that both Judah & Israel were on a sharp decline as a nation and as a people desirous of serving God. The Northern Kingdom of Israel had gone into Idolatry. Jezebel had pushed Baal worship to an extreme. Upon her death, Jehu tried to rid the land of Baal worship, but did not gain the hearts of people back to God. Judah was also having problems with idolatry. They had just gotten rid of the daughter of Jezebel from being Queen over Judah, and appointed 7-year old Joash to be king. Both King Joash & Jehu started off good....but the hearts of the people were not turned to God. Thus, the purpose of Joel was:

- a) To threaten punishment upon a disobedient people.
- b) To call for repentance or else.
- c) Mercy to be shown if they truly repented.
- d) God will judge their enemies.

- 2) Come from the Almighty.
- 3) Blow the trumpets....sound of warning of extreme danger.
- 4) It is a day of darkness and gloom.
- 5) Day of helplessness, sinking heart, anguish, ruin.
- 6) It will come like a mighty army with horses & chariots.
- 7) Fire & destruction will be in its wake.
- 8) Like an earthquake....heavens trembling, sun & moon darkened, stars not shining is God’s way of expressing judgment upon a nation and its fall. (2:10; 3:15)
- 9) Describing God’s righteous indignation against a people who apparently had turned to ungodliness & wickedness.

GOD CALLS FOR REPENTANCE (1:13-2:27)

- A. *In spite of destruction to come, it is not too late to repent. (1:13-14; 2:12-14)
- 1) God can still bless if he sees sincere repentance.
 - 2) Sincerely fast, weep, and mourn.
 - 3) Rend your hearts, not your garments.
 - 4) Ps. 51:17---“The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and contrite heart.”
- B. *God calls for a solemn assembly of the people. (2:15-17)
- 1) Led by priests...followed by all...youngest to oldest.
 - 2) Call upon Jehovah to spare his people.
 - 3) For if true repentance does not take place, God will deliver them into the hands of heathen nations to rule over them.
- C. *The results of repentance. (2:18-27)
- 1) Cause the destroying army to leave a blessing behind.
 - 2) He does not want them in derision of the heathen either, but sin will cause it.
 - 3) He will show pity, compassion:
 - a) By giving them food sorely needed.
 - b) Remove the reproach brought on by their destruction.
 - c) Bless the fruit of their labors abundantly.
 - d) Restore an abundance to them again...like Garden of Eden.
 - e) Completely destroy the invaders.
 - 4) God’s people will praise name of the Lord for what He has done
 - a) Will not be ashamed because they serve God.
 - b) Will know the Lord is God Almighty.

FUTURE PROMISES ABOUT HIS PEOPLE (2:28-3:17)

- A. *The outpouring of His Spirit upon all flesh. (2:28-32)
- 1) Messianic. (Acts 2:17-21)
 - 2) Peter said, “This is that which the prophet Joel said”.

 - 2) God will sit in judgment upon all nations (in Valley of Jehoshaphat). (3:12)
 - 3) Their wickedness is full and ready to be punished.

- 4) Will know that Jerusalem is holy, the Lord's dwelling place for His people....no strangers to pass through.

GREAT BLESSINGS TO COME IN THAT DAY. (3:18-21)

- A. *Great blessings to come to God's people and all who seek Him and His refuge. (3:21) (Rev. 22:17)
B. Uses Egypt & Edom to illustrate God's punishment to those who would not turn to Him for refuge.

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS

The Prophet gives Hope in midst of great destruction....physically. He also offers hope in midst of great injustices that have not fully been avenged. Such will be avenged in day of the judgment of Jehovah. God's people will be exonerated...held up....exalted...justified. God would prove who were His true people by dwelling with them!
